

Preferred Counsel for NFA Matters

Mark Barnes, Esq.

Mark Barnes & Associates, LLP (“MB&A”) | Mr. Barnes became part of the FFLGuard Program in 2010, and is the principal founder of MB&A. He works closely with the firearms industry and other interested parties to form coalitions and support pro-gun initiatives that support their needs. His years of experience, practical knowledge, and passion for the protection of Second Amendment served as a basis for FFLGuard to seek his counsel.

At the direction of Mr. Barnes, MB&A deals with many legal matters related to firearms, including but not limited to a keen understanding of the National Firearms Act. Mr. Barnes’ law practice represents trade associations, individual Federal Firearms Licensees, manufacturers, importers and exporters in a wide variety of regulatory and legislative matters before the executive, judicial, and legislative branches of governments. In addition, MB&A handles matters related to international trade, business, and global firearms matters, as well as product liability and other consumer product matters relating to the firearms trade. MB&A also works with the United States Department of State and United States Department of Commerce on matters relating to permanent and temporary export of munitions. FFLGuard specifically seizes upon MB&A’s proximity to Capitol Hill and the Federal agencies to assist on NFA matters and other issues related to the Program.

An alumnus of the Arizona State University, Mark received his Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science. After graduation he received his Juris Doctor degree from the UCLA School of Law in 1981. He is admitted to practice before several state and federal courts, including the Supreme Court of the United States.
