

Preferred Counsel for NFA Trust Issues

David Goldman, Esq.

Apple Law Firm, PLLC | Mr. Goldman, became part of the FFLGuard Program in 2011. He brings over 20 years of business experience to the Program's clients. He has been involved in starting and managing technology related companies involved in distribution, manufacturing, marketing, retail, direct marketing and ecommerce. With his broad business background, Mr. Goldman concentrates in the areas of business formations, business transactions, elder law, and estate planning, and asset protection. Mr. Goldman writes the Gun Trust Lawyer blog which deals with Gun Trusts and directly with the FFLGuard program and their NFA-LSP clients.

He is a key member of an impressive group of experts in FFLGuard program. He is the founder of the Apple Law Firm of Jacksonville, FL, and will provide his National Firearms Act ("NFA") Trust expertise to the FFLGuard program. Specifically, FFLGuard will refer clients (and their retail customers) to Mr. Goldman and his network of Gun Trust Lawyers® to utilize his expertise developing Gun Trusts for NFA firearms and collectors of firearms in every state where FFLGuard has clients.

This group of Gun Trust lawyers is pleased to offer clients legal expertise in all aspects of living trusts including those dealing with Firearms regulated by the National Firearms Act. They understand that the right to bear arms is a constitutional right that is not absolute under current state and federal laws. In order to comply with state and federal laws, they are available to FFLGuard clients and are available to assist them with setting up Gun Trusts.

An alumnus of the University of London, Mr. Goldman received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in International Law. Following his graduation, he received his Juris Doctor degree from Florida Coastal School of Law, Jacksonville, FL.

